GENERAL GUIDELINES

Region Dues $200.00 per year

The Region Treasurer (currently Cheryl Batchi) will send invoices at the beginning of the Academic Year to member schools.

Athletic Department Personnel and Coaching staff: Important rules regarding off-season workouts, and recruiting

The following are considered VIOLATIONS of the NWAC Code

1. Recruitment of players who have already signed a letter of Intent at another school.
2. Use of coaching staff at organized summer events.
3. Recruiting players from areas outside of the designated areas. (see article VI, section 2 of the NWAC Code Book for a list of states).
4. Requiring student-athletes to attend organized practices/workouts during the off-season.
5. Organized practices without an academic class offering before the first official practice can begin (the NWAC Calendar is published each year and distributed to athletic commissioners).
6. Solicitation of free items, by school personnel, for team member's personal use.

Western Region Protocol: If you feel a violation might be occurring without the affected school's athletic director being aware of it, proceed with the following steps.

1. Coaches should inform their athletic director if he/she hears of, or if someone reports to them that a school is in violation of the NWAC Code.
2. The athletic director should then call and inform the athletic director at the school in question, as to what is/may be occurring.
3. The athletic director at the school in question should then research the situation to determine if a violation is occurring. If so, correction should be made.
4. If the reporting school feels that the violation is continuing, the next step would then be to report to the NWAC using (NWAC form A-68) available in the NWAC code book.

CHANGES IN LEAGUE SCHEDULE

If your institution has a legitimate need to make a change in the LEAGUE schedule.

1. The change must be approved by the Western Region Commissioners.
2. This does not include flipping home/away or flipping men/women times on doubleheaders.
3. Reason must be legitimate: i.e. facility availability, emergencies.

WEST REGION BASEBALL TIE-BREAKERS

Head to head competition should determine tiebreaker if at all possible

Order of Tie Breaker Procedure

- 1) Head to head competition among tied teams
- 2) Head to head competition versus highest finisher, then next highest finisher, etc.
- 3) West Region tiebreaker matrix rotation

Scenarios: (THESE MAY NEED REVISIONS DUE TO NEW PLAYOFF FORMAT)

1st Place

- If 2-way tie for first with a split of head-to-head series: both teams to NWAC tourney. No playoff series. Matrix decides #1 and #2 seed designation
- If 2-way tie for first: team with better head-to-head record advances to NWAC tourney as #1 seed, the other team hosts the #3 at #2 playoff series
- If 3-way tie or 4-way tie for first, use Tie-Breaker procedure step 1 and then step 2 to separate teams, if possible. Step 3 will be used for site and bye determination for playoff if needed.

2nd Place

- If 2-way tie for second place with a split of head-to-head series: single game decides #2 and #3 into West Playoff. Matrix number determines host site.
- If 2-way tie for second place: team with better head-to-head record hosts the #3 at #2 playoff series.
- If 3-way tie or 4-way tie for second place: use tiebreaker procedure to separate teams, if possible. Step 3 will be used for site and bye determination for playoff if needed.

3rd Place

- If 2-way tie for third with a split of head-to-head series: single game decides #3 team into West Playoff. Matrix determines host site.
- If 2-way tie for third place: team with better head-to-head record advances to West Playoff as the #3 team.
- If 3-way tie or 4-way tie for third place: use the tiebreaker procedure to separate teams, if possible. Step 3 will be used for site and bye determination for playoff if needed.

Site and Bye Determination

- If three-way tie: top tie-breaker team or best matrix number team gets bye. Second tie-breaker team or second matrix number team hosts third tiebreaker or third matrix team in a single 9 inning game. Bye team then hosts winner of the first game the following day.
- If four-way tie: #4 at #1, #3 at #2. Winners either decide seeding, or winners play additional single game to decide outcome.

All-Star Procedures

1. On the Sunday following the last scheduled West Region game, the West Region baseball representative shall call a meeting of the West baseball coaches to nominate and select the All-West team.
2. Coaches select the team consisting of five (5) infielders, four (4) outfielders, one (1) catcher, one (1) designated hitter, one (1) utility player, four (4) pitchers, one (1) relief pitcher, and an MVP. First and second teams shall be selected.

SOCCER

Coaches Meetings

Coaches Meeting in conjunction with the All Star Game

NWAC MEN AND WOMEN SOCCER ALL-STAR SELECTION PROCESS

NWAC soccer coaches are supplied with a nomination form and asked to submit the names, positions, and numbers of eight or less of their team's players to be included on the Soccer All Star Team ballot for their region. Coaches are encouraged to include a brief profile of their nominees. The nomination form must be returned by the published deadline.

The soccer committee chair compiles the submitted information and prepares a regional ballot containing the nominated players, their position, name, college and number. The ballot is sent to the respective region coaches for the voting process. Coaches vote for athletes they feel deserve inclusion on the All Star team. Coaches may not vote for their own nominated players. Coaches not returning ballots by the published deadline will have their nominees omitted from the All Star team.

-Men's and Women's Soccer All Region Teams

In 2005, the NWAC soccer alignment separated from two leagues into the customary four region alignment as seen in other sports. With that came a need to redesign the procedure for awarding post season honors to student athletes in soccer.

Beginning in the Fall of 2007, the four regions of men's and women's soccer will create and recognize all region honors to three members of each team in each region (as approved by the Soccer committee in Aug, 2006).

Criteria: Consideration to the All Region Honorees should be made based on talent, role on squad, sportsmanship displayed, leadership qualities and eligibility. Through this process, a coach will have the opportunity to recognize players on his/her team who might not be recognized through the all star selection process.

As voted by the Western Region Commissioners on 4/6/06, beginning in 2007 it will be the responsibility of the first (top) team listed in the yearly matrix to play host and secure a site for that year's Western Region VB Crossover tournament.

The host of the second region crossover of the season will be selected by those that volunteer.
